European sustainable IDD hours management and e-learning Business

Around 3.56 million employees in the EU are affected and are legally obliged to follow EU-wide legislation and thus complete annual training.

The company is the first sustainable IDD Hours Management & e-learning provider: it provides companies with a centralized IDD training and management tool for all requirements of the IDD training obligation.

The platform used by an organization or institution in Europe to manage and track individual development hours or days for employees, students, or participants in a sustainable development program. This development is often an important aspect of sustainable practices within organizations or educational institutions.

ASSET deal or takeover of the company in Cyprus possible. The company is being sold 100% and no employees need to be taken on. Operating since 2021. Well-known companies in Austria from the insurance and banking industries are among customers.

Rollout for the entire EU prepared and implemented quickly.

With an annual churn rate of under 4% and over 89% gross margin (which can be optimized with the increasing number of users), we have already provided the "proof of concept" in the first few years.
