Construction of High-quality Boats

Starting their operations in the 1960s, this company specialized in the construction of high-quality boats, designed by a well-known engineer and aimed at both offshore racing and an exclusive clientele. Entrusting styling to renowned designers, the company solidified its reputation in the nautical sector.

Since the 2000s, the company has strengthened its experience and reliability in the nautical sector, becoming a leader in naval shipbuilding in its region. It has formed partnerships with various brands in the boat production and component sector, contributing to the launch and consolidation of several startups in the industry. The company has also provided technical assistance to well-known shipyards like Ferretti and Pershing.

Customer trust and attention are fundamental elements for the company, which commits to the reliability of its brand. The specialist technicians, with years of experience in the nautical sector, ensure the best service and technical assistance. The company owns a marina with mooring for boats from 18 to 25 meters, 70 boats in the water, and 30+30 boats on land under sheds and in the yard, respectively. It also has a mechanical workshop, metal workshop, and a carpentry equipped with master carpenters. It also offers a nautical club and provides customers with a catering service that offers excellence in terms of quality and has become one of the best fish restaurants in the area over time.

The company's goal is to ensure the same quality of services, consolidating its corporate structure and enriching the team with new specialized figures. The creation of an innovative 45-foot open boat, among other models, is planned.

In the assistance/service sector, the company has recently concluded a significant contract with Man and Ftp and is planning to expand its mechanical workshop. It has also established itself as an official dealer of various luxury brands in the nautical sector (Seabob, Fliteboard, Awake, and Schiller).

The company is always in search of innovative and eco-sustainable products.
