MERGERSCORP

Historical Established Shipyard

An Italian shipyard founded in 2013 with the aim of offering highly professional solutions to the needs of shipowners, sailors and motorboats ranging between 10 and 28 meters.

The Core Business of the company is the Shipyard, home to indoor storage activities, ordinary and extraordinary maintenance services, specialized technical assistance on all types of marine engines, in particular on Volvo Penta as an Authorized Workshop, and all other services for recreational boating.

Volvo Penta has chosen their shipyard to represent its brand and carry out precise and guaranteed interventions on boats equipped with Volvo engines. Computerized instrumentation allows them to make a precise diagnosis and guarantee the solution to every type of problem.

Indoor storage is about 1,200 square meters while for the outdoor forecourt, the area available for storage and all other processing Is about 3,500 square meters.

All operations are carried out by specialized technical personnel, who carry out their work with seriousness and professionalism using specific equipment and products of excellent quality ensuring the utmost attention to every detail in the execution of the work.

Thanks to the presence of a latest generation 100-ton Travel Lift from a technical and use point of view, they can guarantee maximum safety in the lifting and handling of sailing boats and motor between 10 and 30 meters.

Finally, among other, the company offers an annual boat management package, with a guarding, cleaning and keeping in order of the hull in general.
