Historical Italian Serie B Football Club

This historic Italian football club, currently competing in Serie B, it has an impressive legacy with over 45 seasons played in Italy's top two divisions, Serie A and Serie B. The club operates its own state-of-the-art sports center, a dedicated hotel, and a fully equipped medical center, highlighting its strong professional infrastructure.

With a deep-rooted tradition in both the first team and youth sector, the club has consistently developed and launched talented players who have gone on to make notable impacts in the world of football. Its large, loyal fan base further emphasizes the club's significant role in the community and in the sport.

The club is situated in a strategically advantageous location, offering immense potential for tourism development, football expansion, and real estate opportunities. This includes the possibility of revamping the stadium and undertaking various real estate projects, enhancing the club's overall value and influence. The area is poised for future growth, both in terms of tourism and investment.
