Portuguese Football Club Liga 4

An established Portuguese football club with deep roots and a proud history is now open to strategic investment. Currently competing in Liga 4 for the 2025–2026 season, the club offers a compelling opportunity for investors looking to enter European football through a professionally managed, growth-oriented organization.

With over 85 years of history and community presence, the club has spent 11 seasons in the 3rd tier and 14 seasons in the 4th tier of Portuguese football. Renowned for its commitment to youth development, the club boasts 200+ players across all age categories and a proven track record of producing professional and international-level talent.

The club holds long-term agreements to use two stadiums, each with a capacity of 4,000 seats. One of them is a municipal professional stadium, equipped with both natural grass and artificial turf. Additionally, the club maintains a B team and a U19 squad, enabling it to register a significant number of international players.

With a highly engaged fanbase of over 18,000 followers across social media platforms, the club broadcasts all its matches live via YouTube and Portuguese TV. It also operates its own official online store and dedicated TV channel.

Financially, the club enjoys support from a diverse group of sponsors and partners, and has over 900 active affiliates who contribute through monthly membership fees.

The new owner will receive the club debt-free.
