15 Years Old Import / Export of Crude Oil Ready Made Swiss AG

This Swiss AG (Aktiengesellschaft) is an established company specializing in the trading of oil and oil products. Beyond direct sales, it also provides a range of associated services, making it a comprehensive solution in the energy sector. Its articles of association outline additional ancillary purposes, offering potential for diversified operations. This is a ready-made corporate entity for those looking to enter or expand within the stable Swiss market, particularly in commodity trading.

Obwalden: A Strategic Location for Swiss Company Incorporation

Nestled in the geographic heart of Switzerland, the Canton of Obwalden stands out as a highly desirable location for company incorporation. It is renowned for its exceptionally low corporate tax rates, often cited as among the lowest in Europe (currently around 12.74% combined federal, cantonal, and municipal tax). This competitive fiscal environment is a primary draw for both Swiss and international businesses.

Beyond tax benefits, Obwalden offers a streamlined and efficient administrative process for company registration, characterized by minimal bureaucracy and fast timelines. The canton boasts a stable political and economic climate, a hallmark of Switzerland, providing a secure and predictable foundation for business operations.

Companies in Obwalden also benefit from access to a skilled and motivated workforce from the central Switzerland region and excellent transportation connections to major urban centers like Lucerne, Zug, and Zurich. The canton actively promotes business and offers support for company formation and relocation, ensuring a smooth transition for new entities.
