

30-Year-Old American Data Center Internet Service Provider

30-Year-Old American Data Center Internet Service Provider

Founded in 1994, this private corporation specializes in internet services, including web hosting, domain registration, and data center colocation. The company is based in the United States and serves customers across the United States and in over 20 countries. This organization's mission is to provide professional, cost-effective hosting and data center solutions with 24/7 expert support.

History

The company was established by a group of IT professionals at a time when the need for a business website was not yet widely understood. For over 30 years, this organization has focused on helping businesses make smart and reliable choices online. They emphasize a customer-first approach, prioritizing client needs over upselling unnecessary products.

Services

This organization provides a range of internet-related services, including:

- Hosting: WordPress, Linux, and Windows web hosting, as well as basic email hosting and Hosted Microsoft Exchange.
- Domain Services: Domain registration and transfer.
- Virtual Servers: Linux and Windows Virtual Private Servers (VPS).
- Data Center Colocation: Offering physical space for client servers and equipment in their Harrisburg, PA, data center. This location is chosen for its strategic position, providing low-latency access to major metropolitan areas and a low risk for natural disasters.
- Security: SSL Certificates and email security solutions.
