Business Focus and Activities

The Company is a commercial entity in the deregulated Italian energy market, focused on securing and supplying energy resources to customers. Their main activities include:

1. Gas Distribution Trade: The core business involves the commercial activity of trading and supplying natural gas via pipelines (mains) to final consumers and possibly other intermediaries.
2. Energy Retail: The firm offers natural gas and electricity supply services, competing in the retail energy market to serve the evolving needs of Italian consumers and businesses.

Market Context

This supplier holds a recognized, active role within the competitive Italian Energy Supply industry. Its operations are characterized by:

- Retail Competition: It competes directly with larger national utilities and smaller regional firms in the sale of gas and electricity.
- Regulatory Adherence: As a distributor of gas via mains, its activities are closely tied to the regulatory and operational framework of the Italian gas network, requiring compliance with national energy laws and standards.

The reported turnover figure indicates a mid-to-small-scale enterprise operating with a significant presence in its designated market.
