High End Luxury Clothing Line

Specialized designer and trendsetter in the world of contemporary and couture women's clothing, with over 20 years of on-hand, entrepreneurial and brand experience in the global fashion industry.

Keypoints

- Collaborated and advised some of the preeminent global fashion companies in areas such as collection design for many years before starting her own brand;
- Sold collections to the most prominent, respected and influential fashion specialty stores on earth such as Colette and L'Eclaireur in Paris, Browns in London, Saks Fifth Avenue in New York, Louis of Boston and many others worldwide;
- Launched, managed and grew her high-end couture and R-T-W brands, creating worldwide presence at the most well-known retail stores while generating attractive results for her investors;
- Has deep experience creating and building fashion brands and creating brand awareness, having shown lines in many of the most prestigious runway shows including Mercedes Benz Fashion Week in New York.

Within a few years of founding her eponymous label, she created a ready-to-wear fashion collection targeting 25-50 year-old women. Throughout the 2000s, she presented her collections at major international fashion events to wide acclaim and achieved International recognition throughout the United States, Western Europe and Eastern Asia.+

Production

Over the last four years, the owner has formed critically strong relationships with two ultra-high end production facilities in France (fabric and assembly) and Italy (embellishments). The owner's gravitas and reputation within the industry has enabled these partnerships.

Marketing & Distribution

The brand follows in the footsteps of successful brands in the industry while creating its own creative direction and very strong image. These names started with retail stores in targeted areas to establish their image in the market and establish a dedicated clientele.

The owner has formed a critically strong advisory team with expertise across the board in design, production, marketing and the retail rollout of brands, along with expertise in raising capital and finance.
