- Description of the Company's regulatory license:

In Switzerland, there are two categories of financial intermediaries. One category includes banks, insurance companies, securities dealers, fund managers, etc., and is subject to supervision under Art. 2, para. 2 of the AMLA. The other group, referred to by FINMA as the "alternative" or "para-banking" sector covers all other financial intermediaries and is subject to supervision under Art. 2, para. 3 of the AMLA. This company's license falls under the para-banking category and has membership with a supervisory body officially approved by FINMA.
